Step 1 Webquest

Answer Sheet

Your students are getting ready to encounter the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) Webquest. They are gearing up and preparing themselves with resource materials to help them on their journey. Step One is designed to introduce new members to the organization and serve as a review to repeat members. Members will discover more about FCCLA and what it has to offer after completing this activity. They will learn about the organization's programs and how to complete them.

The FCCLA Webquest is a fun way to educate your members and perhaps brush-up on your knowledge of Family, Career and Community Leaders of America. Using Step One early in the year is ideal. It allows the students to become aware of what opportunities are out there and how to pursue them. The explorers will need access to the FCCLA Web site to find all their answers.

You are the keeper of the answers to their questions. Perhaps share the answers with your chapter officers to help review the members' answers. When they come to you with their completed Step One sheet, check their answers with ones below.

1. What does FCCLA stand for?

How did they do? Are they...

Elite—You’ve traveled the FCCLA Webquest and are ready to experience new horizons!

First Class (11–15)—You packed all of the right resources, but one of your bags may have been lost.

Business Class (5–10)—The travel arrangements have been made, but be sure to check your guides and itinerary again!

Coach (0–4)—We don’t want you to miss your flight! Visit the FCCLA Web site and read through the FCCLA resources available to upgrade your FCCLA Webquest skills!

Once the members have completed Step One, they should be ready for the next FCCLA journey. You may want to introduce them to another national program or have them recruit other members to tackle the FCCLA Webquest. They could also become involved in fundraising for leadership meetings, public relations for their chapter, or complete a community service project.

Don’t toss the FCCLA explorers’ names away! Click HERE to print their certificate of recognition. You are encouraged to purchase Step One pins for members who complete the FCCLA Webquest. The pins are available through the FCCLA Web site.
